

Permission of Stable Conversion refused

Guildford Borough Council Planners have refused planning permission for the conversion of a stable on land north of Lime Grove to a single story bungalow.

The application which had attracted a great deal of interest locally was opposed by the Parish Council.

The details of the application and the response can be found on the Guildford Borough Council website at <http://www2.guildford.gov.uk/publicaccess/simpleSearchResults.do?action=firstPage>